Program Overview

Fire is probably the most dangerous situation you may encounter. If the correct fire-fighting drill, procedure and technique is not carried out as soon as a fire starts, the situation rapidly becomes out of control and can have devastating consequences in the confined space of an office or house.

Target Audience

✈ Office employees
✈ Security officers
✈ Emergency responders
✈ Fire Marshallers

Pre-requisites

Trainees should have written and oral command of the language of instruction

Learning Objectives

✈ To immediate reporting any hazard related to Health & Safety.
✈ To ensure safe workplace environment.
✈ To increase safe quality productivity.
✈ To protect company properties.
✈ Use appropriate type of fire extinguishers, understand colors of fire extinguishers, images and more tools.

Course Content

✈ Definitions
✈ Emergency Response Plan
✈ Roles and Responsibilities
✈ Organization and Assignment of Responsibilities
✈ Plan development and maintenance
✈ Specific Hazards
✈ Aircraft Incidents and Accidents
✈ Aircraft Accident on the Airport
✈ Aircraft Accident off the Airport
✈ Full Emergency
✈ Local Standby
✈ Non-aircraft Accident Related Airport Emergencies
✈ Airport Structural Fire
✈ Bomb Threat
✈ Occurrences Involving Dangerous Goods
✈ Fuel Spills
✈ Unlawful Acts Against Civil Aviation

Assessment Not required

Certificate Upon successful completion of the course and examination, candidates will be awarded a course attendance certificate